

Fitting the Front Neck

Feel for the little horsehoe-shaped area where your collar bones meet. That's as high as a neckline or stitching line can go.

Fitting the Back Neck

Put on a lightweight chain necklace and wear it normally for a few minutes so that it falls where it naturally wants to fall.

Where it hits the neck in back is where your neckline or stitch line should be.